Ease-Horses Race on their Form at Clifton-Five Favorites Win. Winter racegoers like to see large fields of Winter racegoers like to see large fields of horses, and as there was a full programme at filtes, regulars were out in great force. The track was in fine condition, making it a day for the favorites. Dan Honig's horses, ridden by M. Hill, carried off the palm by winning three races. One of the notable events of the day was the performance of Long Island as compared with that of Wednesday, when Hill was hissed for preventing the horse from winning. Eleven started in the first race, a dash of seven furiongs. Dan Honig's colt Kyrle B., Bill riding, was post favorite at 2 to 1 against. Jere Dunn's mare Louise crowding at 11 to 5. Defendant had a fair following at 5 to 1. All the others were outsiders in the betting as well as in the race. Kyrle B. won by a length and a half. Louise second, three lengths in front of Defendant.

The second race showed how good a horse Long Island is when he has his head. The horse was favorite at even money, Brian Boru having the second call at 18 to 5, with Gany-mede next in favor at 4% to 1. Hill sent Long Island out from the cluster at the start, and the horse opened a gap of two lengths in the first furions. He was never headed, winning the race in a gallop by five lengths. Brian Bern and Vosburg made a hard fight for the i to 40 to 1. Zenobla moved out from the front bunch on the backstretch and held the van to the finish, winning by haif a length. Battle Cry beating Mr. Sass a head for second place.

peating Mr. Base a head for second place. Charley finished last.
Tenrace horses ran for the $700 purec. Honigs horse Tipstaff, with Hill in the saddle, carried a lot of money at "dda of 6 to 5 smallest. Bliver Prince was second choice at 4 to 1, Al Farrow having many supporters at 5 to 1. Tipstaff took the lead in the anug race on the backstretch Jack Rose and Young Duke olning in a tighting finish. Tipstaff won, with lack rose at his flank, and Young Duke a close third.

New York Bide Club Shoot,

The New York Rifle Club held a handleap club contest at their headquarters, 12 St. Mark's piece, on Thursday evening, fifty-eight entries being received altogether. Some very good scores were put up, and the results at tained show that the handicapa as alloted by the Execu-tive Committee and based on last year's average, will need but little correction for some time to come. The best score of each man, including his handicap, was as best score of each man, including his handicap, was as follows:

Twenty competitions will take piace under the following conditions: Ten shots offband on a standard American target, resurries allowed distance 260 yards. The prizes will be blonze, siver, and ged medals, to be won on ten scores of 15 or better, of 80 or better, and of 80 or better, respectively. An astra prize will be awarded to the marksman making the highest score during the season.

Carr Beats Walbaum. Mr. O Walbaum, President of the Hudson County Mr. O Walbaum. President of the Hndson County Jockey Cinh and J. C. Carr. one of the managers, shot a pigeon match on the Guitanburg race track yesterday for $200 a ride, twenty birds each, twenty-five yards' rise. From the start Carr had the best of the match killing his first eight birds and only missing three of the twenty. President Walbaum was in bad form and only killed nine, but he had the had inch to get drivers every time the trap was sprung. The score of the match is as follows:

BOWLING. FLORIDA Having the game all but won, the Orchard players be-came careless in the first contest at the Academy alleys last night, and as the Apollo team in the mean time were playing an up-hill game, the champions were again successful in pulling out a game in the final frame. This demoralised the Orchards, as even the lookhams found as trouble in winning the next game.
